Norfolk AUTISM Acceptance Week

27 March – 2 April 2023

Celebrate Norfolk Autism Acceptance Week 2023 with us

We have lots of free engaging activities for school staff and pupils.

Get involved for a chance to win a book bundle for your school library in our prize draw.

- Pupils can learn about autism in an exciting and engaging way by joining the Autism Ambassador scheme
- We have free downloadable activities and resources for children and young people
- Staff and parent carers will have an opportunity to hear from autistic guest speakers Dean Beadle, who speaks on empowering neurodivergent young people, and author and musician Robyn Steward, who regularly delivers training for children, parents and schools
- Develop your understanding of autism and attend one of the fully funded online training sessions that are running during the week.
